PARKING: Daytime Parking is available with paid permits. The Parking and Transit Services Center at 20 Sage Way sells parking permits and directs visitors to the correct parking lot. Free evening parking after 6PM and weekend parking are available in B-Lot (between Academic Way and McDaniel Drive); no permit is needed. Accessible Parking for those with disabilities is available in the marked front areas of Paul Creative Arts, first-come-first-served; no permit needed. There is also limited metered parking in front of PCAC, free after 6 p.m.

ACCESSIBILITY: Accessible parking, access, restrooms, and seating are available at both theatres. When ordering tickets through the ticket office, request accessible seating and usher assistance. When ordering tickets online, choose row P for accessible seating. The Johnson and Hennessy Theaters are equipped with an FM Assistive Listening System. Guests may request either a neck loop or headphone assistive listening device at the Johnson Theater lobby. See an usher for assistance.

LATE ARRIVALS: As a courtesy to those who arrive on time, latecomers will be seated at the discretion of the management. In some cases, this may be at intermission only. Please note the curtain time for all performances.

CAMERAS, RECORDERS & CELL PHONES: Cameras and other recording devices are not permitted in the theatre. Please turn off all cell phones and other electronic devices as it is disturbing to artist(s) and audience alike.

FOOD & DRINK: Food and beverages are not permitted in the theatre.

CHILDREN AND INFANTS: Please consider interest, attention span, and potential for disturbing other patrons before bringing along an infant or child. Every patron, regardless of age, must have a ticket and an assigned seat (this includes babes in arms).

POSTPONEMENT/CANCELLATION OF EVENTS DUE TO INCLEMENT WEATHER: Up-to-date postponement/cancellation information will be available by calling 603-862-7222 or visiting unharts.com. If UNH Theatre & Dance cancels a show due to inclement weather, those tickets will be accepted on the scheduled postponement date.
